

Data Center Services Executed with Military Precision

Salute Mission Critical provides the skilled personnel to help you maintain, manage, and secure data centers, with military precision and reliability. Our customers around the globe depend on us to provide services in sensitive and critical environments.

We know what Mission Critical means. Salute was founded by veterans so discipline is in our DNA. Our teams bring this same military-grade precision and integrity to serving our data center customers. They know how to get in and get the job done right.

Why Salute?

- Reliability and results-focused professionalism
- Standard procedures executed with discipline and precision
- Flexibility and speed with-out sacrificing safety
- Continuous training and development of talent
- Rapid deployment to meet your needs on your timeline

Services & Capabilities Available in the Federal Republic of Germany

OPERATE & MANAGE

Reliable and agile on-site maintenance and support are critical to ensure data center operations are aligned to the business. Salute's flexible service model provides multi-skilled technicians when and where you need them.

SERVICES INCLUDE:

- On-site operations support
- Hands-on technical support
- Physical security
- Project management & execution
- Commissioning services
- QA/QC Services

DEPLOY

Speed, flexibility, and agility are key to deploying equipment at the pace you need to keep up with business demands.

- Rack and stack
- White glove services
- Containment, cable trays & drop ceiling
- Structured cabling material and installation
- Day Porters: dedicated teams to maintain proper cleanliness during construction
- Final clean project management and execution

Need a Hand? Contact Salute Today info@saluteinc.com
salutemissioncritical.com